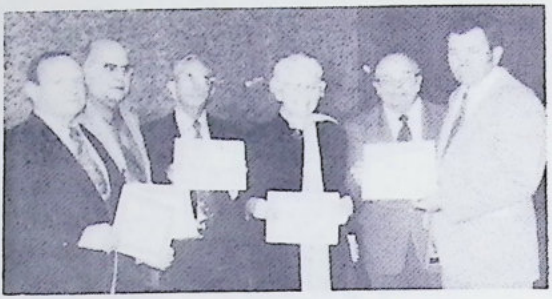
PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The North Carolina Numismatic Association plans to hold it's 16th annual convention in Charlotte, N. C. this Oct. 18, 19, 20, and I would like to urge all N.C.N.A. Members to attend this convention. We plan to elect officers and look at our finances and try to find ways to improve the N.C.N.A., and make plans for the next convention, such as when and where it will take place. Many local groups and clubs attend the convention in order to take advantage of the many services offered by the N.C.N.A. for improvement of the local clubs and smaller groups. Perhaps of less importance, yet high on the list is the fellowship enjoyed at the convention. Here we can renew old acquaintances and meet new friends and show off that special piece for our collection we found since the last convention and the more serious collector can exhibit his collection and therefore make a worthwhile contribution to the festivities. This will be a time of mixed emotions for me as I will step down as your president and while I will not be in the President's Chair after the convention I plan to continue working for and promoting the N.C.N.A. I know the leadership for the coming year will be in able hands. Plan now to attend our state convention and take an active part in it when you get there.

RAY McGUIRE
President N.C.N.A.

GREENSBORO COIN CLUB HONORS CHARTER MEMBERS



S. M. Hupman, Jr., S. V. Williamson, Walter B. Braxton, Viola A. Braxton, J. W. B. Bason, and President Doyle McKinney, making the presentation.

The Greensboro Coin Club celebrated their 20th Anniversary at a combination Christmas Dinner and Anniversary program, Monday night, December 3, 1973. After a buffet dinner at the Quality Court Restaurant, the history of the club was read by the club historian, Mrs. Viola A. Braxton. The Greensboro Coin Club was organized, December 12, 1953 under the sponsorship of the Greensboro Parks and Recreation Department. The first meeting place was in the offices of the Recreation Department and then changed to the Mayfair Cafeteria where they continued to meet until the cafeteria was torn down. The club now meets at the Lewis Recreation Center. President Doyle McKinney asked fire charter members, who have been active members during the twenty year period, to come forward. The club secretary, Mrs. J. W. B. Bason read a resume of each ones years of service and then Mr. McKinney presented each one a Honorary Life Membership Certificate. He reminded them that his was not a retirement award but that the club expected twenty more years of faithful service.

TAKING UP HIS POSITION?

It appears to this writer as if General Charlie Grace has taken up his position in anticipation of doing Battle with Jack Rice in an effort to prevent takeover of C & J Enterprises by Jack. The vigil proved to be a long lonely one as well as a fruitless one as Jack did not appear to do battle, for as fate would have it Jack had suffered a severe abdominal wound inflicted earlier in the day by the surgeons scalpel and though he tried with all the strength he could muster it was an impossible task and he could not make it to the field of battle. At last report Jack was doing fine and sipping a "TOOT" of Jack Daniels, in fact this writer has it on good authority that when Jack discovered he had appendicitis he immediately took several "TOOTS" of JD and one more on the way to the hospital, arriving at the hospital he persuaded the nurse to give him a double "TOOT" of JD instead of the usual pre-operative shot of morphine, further reports have it that Jack was placed on the rolling table and was being pushed to the operating room by an orderly when the several "TOOTS" of JD took full effect and Jack felt so good he got off the table and helped the orderly push it, after the operation Jack was being fed Glucose intravenously, he got out of bed, emptied the glucose bottle and refilled it with JD, Jack says those hospital gowns are not made for tall people, he says he walked down the hall in his hospital gown and most people had already passed him before they recognized him, Jack says this is only a delay as regards to his ultimate takeover of C & J Enterprises and he is recuperating nicely and appreciates the concern of all friends.

The camp LeJeune - Jacksonville Coin Club sponsored a very successful two day coin show memorial day weekend, 25-26 May, at the Holiday Inn of Jacksonville. Twenty quality bourse dealers were present to serve the general public with an official attendance of 354 persons.

There were eight exhibitors with Edward B. Hoffman winning the "Best of Show" Trophy with "United States Military Payment Certificates." Superior awards were presented to Mrs. E. T. Register for "Box Dollars" and to Junior Member, Danny Trevino for "Imperial Roman Reverses." Outstanding exhibit awards went to Mr. E. T. Register for his "Fractional Currency Shield" and to Andy Anderson for two exhibits entitled "Blue Ridge Railroad Currency" and "USS Constitution & Admiral Dewey's Flagship Medals" and to Junior Member, Bill McIlhenny for "A Numismatic Look at England's History." Perley H. Hargraves won the meritorious award with "Coins of Puerto Rico."

"Guest of Honor Best of Show" Trophy was awarded to Mr. George Crocker of Sumter, South Carolina, for his five case exhibit of gold coins. This display traced the history of gold, from the time it is found as ore and nuggets, ground into dust and minted into coins. Rare Spanish Gold Coins were shown along with a gold coin from the first century to the 20th century.

Free door prizes were awarded throughout the show with the Grand Door Prize ticket drawn at 5 P. M. on Sunday. Mr. Pat Farmer of Camp LeJeune was the winner of a 1915 Austria Gold 4 Ducat Piece.

MOST ATTRACTIVE BOURSE TABLE

Displaying their pretty silver tray awarded them for most attractive bourse area at Asheville, the recipients Mr. & Mrs. Glenn Morrison of Lincoln Coin Center located in Lincolnton, N. C. appear to be pleased with the judges choice. With such pretty adornment as Mrs. Morrison how could they miss?

TIME OUT FOR A SNACK

A heap of miles from home are Mr. & Mrs. Ray McFarland of Seminole, Okla., and they appear to be enjoying themselves in Asheville although they were busy busy busy and had no time for lunch they never-the-less found time for a bite between brisk sales.

THE SAD PART

Packing up to go home is the sad part of any show and Calvin Wall of Martinsville, Va. is preparing to depart the Asheville Show and head back to his home town, Calvin is mostly photographing instead of being photographed as he shoots many pictures at coin shows for coin publications and he is imminently qualified to shoot pictures as he is a professional photographer and is engaged in that business in Martinsville, Va.

BIG WHEELS WHEELING & DEALING

Hershell C. Sutton of Canton, N. C. and James Horne of Chapel Hill, N. C. are in the midst of a big deal at the Asheville, N. C. show. Both are well known wheeler dealers on the show circuit and are a welcome addition to any show.

PRO & PROTEGE?

V. O. Snealgrove at his bourse table at the Asheville show. Vic was accused of letting young son do all the work and explained it thusly, he was teaching him the ropes and telling him all the secrets of becoming a successful coin dealer, no one except young son was buying this story but lots of folks were buying the offerings of these two as they reported a "GOOD" show.

ATLANTA COUPLE at ASHEVILLE

Gene Fallon and his lovely wife at their bourse table in Asheville during the show there. Mrs. Fallon is proof that we have enough pretty ladies attending shows to have our own beauty contest. A little beauty to adorn a coin show and a bourse table is always most welcome and the Fallon's invite all their friends to stop by for a chat and to purchase their hobby needs.

A SATISFIED CUSTOMER

Mr. W. I. Wooten appears to be happy with the purchase he just made in Asheville. Bill Edwards of Lenoir City, Tenn. is the propriotor of this Bourse table.
